The Torch Is Passed

"Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friend and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans--born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of our ancient heritage."

John F. Kennedy, Inaugural Address

January 20, 1961

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1964, being of sound mind do make and declare this to be our last will and testament:

- I, Dorothy Christopher, do will and bequeath to Sharon Brecht my ability to have naturally blonde curly hair.
 - I, Janer Coffland, do will and bequeath to Dixie Newton the ability to go steady with the same guy throughout her senior year.
 - I, David Duncalf, do will and bequeath to Al my pair of eyes, so he may have one pair to watch the road and another to watch his tach.
 - I, Garlinda Gage, do will and bequeath my corner desk to Carolyn Kahle so she can get away with murder!!
 - I, Dianne Heitshusen, do will and bequeath to Kathryn Risdal and Sandra Smith my ability to be absent from band when Mrs. Shetler fractures her baton.
 - I, Joleen Heitshusen, do will and bequeath all of my extra stationary to Beth Grunewald so she can write letters to New Mexico next year.
 - I, Jim Hinkel, do will and bequeath my tire pump to Mr. Squires so that he can pump up his tires when they go flat.
 - I, Charlotte Jackson, do will and bequeath to Sharon Carter and Julia Peiffer the ability to talk without losing my seat in Mr. McCallum's study hall.
 - I, Nancy Keegan, do will and bequeath to Beth Grunewald the ability to keep the car on the road as it was willed to me last year by Cherie Andrews, in the hopes that it will work for you as it has for me. Good Luck!!
 - I, Pat Kimm, do will and bequeath to Sandy Smith my ability to never be ineligible during your senior year.
 - I, Merrill Mecklenburg, do will and bequeath my ability to dodge the ineligibility list at tournament time to next years baseball team so they will have a better chance to beat the opponents.
 - I, Larry Meyer, do will and bequeath to Terry Buelow my own private English class and the ability to stay out of trouble all the time.
 - I, Lanny Moore, do will and bequeath my transister radio to Miss Larson so she can always listen to the "News at Noon."
 - I, Dick Neumeg, do will and bequeath my always complete and acceptable English theme folder to Ivan Alcott--If I can ever find it!!!
 - I, Ronald Niebes, do will and bequeath to Brian Gage my ability to have quick hands to aid him in writing long themes in short periods of time in our favorite class.
 - I, John Niebuhr, do will and bequeath to Alan Stewart the ability to stew over the aggravations of English.
 - I, Chuck Ohlen, do will and bequeath my outstanding athletic ability to John Shuck.
 - I, John Schaub, do will and bequeath my automatic transmission to Brian "Low Gear" Hartz for his mean one ton truck.
 - I, Dean Shetler, do will and bequeath to Phillip Stoddard my passionate love for work.
 - I, Rita Siek, do will and bequeath to Mr. Hashburger the ability to always make the right decision and not to laugh during combat in P.T.
 - I, Lola Thompson, do will and bequeath to Sandy Frimml my ability to turn cartwheels and land on your feet.
 - I, Diane Voss, do will and bequeath to Anne Baker the ability to wear the shortest skirts in the Senior Class.
 - I, Danny Walter, do will and bequeath the name "Little Bugger" to Mr. Wheeler.
 - I, Carol Wardenburg, do will and bequeath to Joan Hannen the ability to keep the car on the road when taking little journeys from town to town.
 - I, Janet Whitworth, do will and bequeath to Mary Van Steenhuyse the ability to have as much fun at declam contests next year as I've had this year.
- We, the Seniors of 1964, or the east side and west side, bequeath our ability to reach an undivided agreement in class meetings to "any" class; to the teachers, all our old notes that are still in our desks; and to the school, a stiff upper lip because of the loss of a great asset.

Prophecy

It is the year 1974. Blirstown, Iowa is no longer a dot on the map. Ten years have molded this small town into a metropolis of over one million people.

It is my job as roving reporter of the Daily Blab to report news of the town.

My day usually begins by boarding a local bus that takes me safely to my many destinations. Just as the bus begins to leave the depot, a late comer is seen waving madly at us to stop the bus. Why it's that famous sports-caster, Lanny Moore, who brings us those thrilling Sunday Sports Spectaculars such as the "Australlian 'Breath Holding Tourney." He explains that he is preparing a trip to Philadelphia where he will interview Jim Hinkel and Larry Meyer, both prominent stars in baseball. Jim pitches for the Philadelphia Phillies while Larry does the Wheaties and Vitalis commercials.

Riding past the Me Too Store, we see John Schaub, the all-time career grocery carry-out boy. John is working hard, saving money, and driving the family car.

We now approach the Benton Community School. Five very private secretaries, Charlotte Jackson, Lola Thompson, Dorothy Christopher, Pat Kimm, and Dianne Heitshusen are busily taking notes as the officials of the School Board rapidly dictate. My first interviews are with two very popular teachers in the local school system. Janet Whitworth, teacher of vocal and instrumental music, and Mrs. Dave Glime, the former Rita Siek, comment on their delightful jobs.

As the National Health Laboratory comes into view, I think of the great contribution that well-known scientist, Chuck Ohlen, recently presented to the American public. He has produced a king-size filter that is 90% effective because 90% of the cigarette is filter.

My next interview is with an undiscovered "star" in the community, Janet Coffland. She stars every day in an original production, "Days of Running Noses," at her farm house. Janet and Dean Rieck are happily married with 3 little Riecks as their co-stars.

As we come back to town an infernal racket of loud pipes and screaming tires follow us. I turn to look and I see Dean Shetler, who now owns the Woerner Oil company division.

Now we pass the local hospital and notice the new zooming clinic and its many patients. Mrs. Terry Allers, the former Joleen Heitshusen, is the head nurse and helping her in any daily chores are Nurse Garlinda Gage and Nurse Nancy Keegan.

I stop at city hall and before leaving, I interviewed Army Private 1st Class, of the 147th Mess Kit Repair Company, John Niebuhr.

Again I leave Blirstown to interview another prominent farmer, who runs Duncalf Hill Farm. I talked to Dave and noticed something behind the barn. It is the 1949 Chevy that Dave is going to put the last tire on and get running one of these days.

I seem to have just enough time to stop and make an appointment at the local beauty salon. Two famous hairdressers, Diane Voss and Carol Wardenburg, operate and own this salon and style coiffures for women.

I take time to chat with Professor Ron Niebes, of the University of Blirstown. His latest discovery is called "Sniff," better known as timepills that stop sniffles and runny noses. Professor Niebes also informs me of the progress of scientists, Merrill Mecklenburg and Danny Walter, and their research on the Bordens Test Farm.

My last interview of the day is with Mr. Chiang-Kai-Cash, better known as Dick Neumeg, who has just been chosen Chinese Restaurant Owner of the Year.

My busy day has come to a close and I hope that you have enjoyed my guided tour.

Class History

We have now climbed the 12 stairs, "one step at a time and always forward," and I am now looking backward at our first school days.

The Kindergarten class of 1951 were very excited about moving into the new building. Among those carrying their little chairs to their new room were: Sharlyn Becker, Dorothy Christopher, Janet Coffland, Dianne Heitshusen, Charlotte Jackson, Nancy Keegan, Patricia Kimm, Edith Sears, Rita Siek, Loretta Stoddard, Lola Thompson, Diane Voss, Carol Wardenburg, Janet Whitworth, Susan Mooney, David Duncalf, James Hinkel, Merrill Mecklenburg, Larry Meyer, Lanny Moore, Ronald Niebes, John Niebuhr, Charley Ohlen, John Schaub, Richard Stoddard, Dennis Stratton, Daniel Voss, and Danny Walter.

In first grade, the first step of our climb, roll call was also answered by Charles Hinchcliffe.

The next step was second grade. Roll call was answered by three new classmates: Patricia Johnson, William Ohlen, and Kenneth Stoddard. However, we also lost three former classmates: Charles Hinchcliffe, Edith Sears, and Susan Mooney.

The third step was almost missed by one little boy when he threw a book at the second grade teacher. However, we all stepped forward and gained two more classmates: Robert Colvin and Kathryn Close.

During fourth grade we lost Patricia Johnson and Richard Stoddard. Michael Tesar was a new classmate. The Fourth grade class was very disappointed that year when Sally, their salamander, froze.

Fifth grade roll call was not answered by Kathryn Close and Dorothy Christopher. The first semester Janet Jinderich joined our class.

During Sixth grade we gained Dorothy Christopher and Garlinda Gage, and lost Kenneth Stoddard, Dennis Stratton, and Daniel Voss.

The two steps in Junior High were two of the most difficult. Everyone worked hard and made the step forward. The Seventh grade roll call was answered by the same 28 students. During Eighth grade, we lost Michael Tesar and Robert Colvin.

The big step into High School was made by the same group. Roll call was also answered by Joleen Heitshusen.

On the tenth stair we lost Loretta Stoddard. I remember roll call was also answered by Dean Shetler.

Almost to the top! The eleventh year in school was a favorite by many in our class. The class remained the same the 1st semester, Bill Ohlen left the 2nd semester.

We have now reached the final step on the stairs in our thirteen years of general education. The graduates are: Dorothy Christopher, Janet Coffland, David Duncalf, Garlinda Gage, Dianne Heitshusen, Joleen Heitshusen, James Hinkel, Charlotte Jackson, Nancy Keegan, Patricia Kimm, Merrill Mecklenburg, Larry Meyer, Lanny Moore, Ronald Niebes, John Niebuhr, Richard Nuemeg, Charley Ohlen, John Schaub, Dean Shetler, Rita Siek, Lola Thompson, Diane Voss, Danny Walter, Carol Wardenburg, Janet Whitworth.

We have now reached a landing in our climb up the unending stairs of the past, present, and future. Many of us plan to further our education, and others plan to work. As we continue on, "one step at a time, and always forward." I want to wish the class of 1964 the Best of Luck.

The Senior Class left Blairstown at 4:00 a.m. on Friday, May 20 for Chicago. First stop in Chicago was the Brookfield Zoo. Short stops were made at the Midwest Stock Exchange, Maxwell Street, and Chinatown. Most of the afternoon was spent at the Museum of Science and Industry. An hour was spent shopping. Some of us made the trip to the "top of the rock" at the Predential building. Final stop was at Mathlgler's Casino where we had dinner and entertainment by the Singing Waiters. We left with many memories and sore feet.
